The Country Reported on the Eve of Revolu-tion—"God and Liberty" About to Animate the Patriotic—Murder of an American—Re-ported Lenders of the Seventy-fifth Revolu-tion.

The French steamer Imperatrice, from Vera Cruz, brings still later dates from Mexico. There were many rumors, some of them claiming to come from reliable sources, that Mexico is on the eve of revolution. It is asserted that the people are disgusted with the administration of Juarez; that the President is controlled by Lerdo de Tejada; that the government act as they please, and there is no protection for American residents.

An American was murdered outside the walls of Vera Cruz shortly before the sailing of the French steamer. The assassin, although known to the authorities, was suffered to escape and arrived at Havana yesterday. The United States Consul at Vera Cruz is powerless to obtain justice.

The several sinking funds applicable to the reduction of the funded debt already amount to $9,500,000. The advance in the market value of the securities which compose the sinking funds is more than $1,250,000. The unfunded debt of the State is less than $1,000,000.

The Rev. O. T. Walker (Baptist) was to-day elected Chaplain of the House.

Governor Saulsbury's Message was communicated to the Legislature yesterday. He refers very fully to the Legislature yesterday. He refers very fully to the State dinances. The total State debt is $1,556,000. This includes the bonds loaned to the Delaware Railroad and the Junction and Break-water Bailroad, amounting to $346,000, all of which is secured to the State by mortgage. The Governor recommends a direct State tax, to include bonds, mortgages and machinery, and a tax which will reach the national banks. He suggests to the Legislature that it may be necessary to revoke the charter of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company because of its refusal to pay the ten cents tax on passengers.

Minnesota.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7, 1869. Governor Marshall submitted his message to the Minnesota Legislature to-day. He pronounces the financial condition of the State good. The receipts for the past year were $836,550, and the expenditures $762,515. The taxable property has increased fifteen per cent in value since 1867, and the schoo fund exceeds $2,000,000. Last year the wheat crop was 10,000,000 of bushels.

DETROIT, Jan. 7, 1869. The Legislature met in joint convention this morning to hear the retiring Governor's message, which is a lengthy document and reviews the financial condition of the State at length. At no time in the history of the State has its credit stood higher tory of the State has its credit stood higher or its exhibit appeared more satisfactory than to-day. He says the sagucity, prudence and economy which have marked the management of the funds of the State for the last four years deserve commendation, and success has attended the reduction of the public debt since the close of the war, and the very large balance now in the Treasury, $1,130,229, attests the wisdom of the Legislature and the high ability and struct faithfulness of the State Treasurer. The total bonded debt is $3,614,073, and the the trust fund debt is $2,031,440.

The two houses again met this afternoon. Governor Baldwin delivered his inaugural messace. In view of the highly favorable financial condition, the Governor recommends the State tax for the next two years to be reduced to as great an extent as can be done with safety to the interest of the State. He reviews the condition of the educational institutions, asylums and State prisons, and recommends an application to Congress for assistance to enlarge St. Mary's Falls ship canal and submits the importance of providing for a thorough geological survey of the State. He aliudes to the defeated constitution of 1868, and says that it is not probable another convention will be authorized for many years; yet changes will be required from time to time, which may be effected by the separate submission of any proposed amendment, and recommends that one to allow salaries to be fixed by the

Stir Over the Arrival of Senator Morgan at Albany—The Fight Waxing Warm—Horace Greeley Lobbying for Marshall O. Roberts, ALBANY, Jan. 7, 1869. THE SENATORIAL CONTEST.

The faces of members and Senators are united in one wreath of smiles to-day. Eternal sunshine seems to have settled on their heads, not because the weather was the fact known than eager inquiries were made as to "whether he had brought his trunks." It is very well known that Fenton's trunks are already here, and it now remains for the members, Senators and the lobby to ascertain which are the heaviest, which no doubt they will do in a very short time. Indee Davis and they will de in a very short time. Judge Davis and Mr. Griswold being now counted out of the contest for Senatorship, the third man—for it appears to be settled that there is to be a triangular affair—will be Marshall O. Roberts, the most liberal candidate of bundle of papers sticking out of his white coat pocket, in the Marshall O. Roberts interest. He is not unfriendly to Morgan, but it is said that he has expressed the opinion that both Fenton and Morgan are demoralizing the party by their bitter and acrimomous conflict; that the great commercial interests of New York should be represented in the United States Senate, and that Roberts understands them thoroughly; while at the same time he would make no distinction between radicals and conservatives, but would serve to hear the present existing froubles in the party. The representation of the party of the same time he would make no distinction between radicals and conservatives, but would serve to hear the present existing froubles in the party. THE FIGHT FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATORSHIP OF NE

THE FIGHT FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATORSHIP OF NEW YORK.

[From the Albany Argus (democrat), Jan. 7.]

The papers announce that Judge Davis withdraws from the canvass for the Senatorship. Rumor assigns him a position of hostility to Governor Fenton, with whom he was lately in alliance; and the supporters of Senator Morgan claim his support for their candidate. The Journal affects to find the provocation to this estrangement in the bad fasts of the Fenton party. It says of Davis:—'The self-constituted managers of the Senatorial canvass here entirely ignore that gentleman. His name was used to show that the West was able to furnish an unexceptionable candidate for the office, and also to work up a sectional sentiment against Governor Morgan. Having as far as possible accomplished that work his name is dropped, and another gentleman is brought forward as the representative man of the West. In other words, Judge Davis having been used to "beat the bush," Governor Fenton is brought forward to "catch the bird." It is a little singular that after four years' acquaintance Governor Fenton has been unable to convince the Evening Journal (his own organ during all that time) of his candor and straightforwardness, and that the definition of gratitude as "a lively sense of favors to come," covers the case not only of the Journal, but of the retiring Judge Davis. Senator Morgan is fortunate in being a man of fortune. So consonouspare his opponents of his strength in this respect, that here of the lobby. If that mixed commission of fools and knaves, the Congressional Committee on the Corruption of Elections, will yielt Albany when the radical caucus is no session they will get as much evidence on the subject as they will be able to carry back.

Hind Tom is likely to be eclipsed by a negro girl from Hinds county. According to a Vicasburg paper she is eighteen years old, is as black as the acc of spades and does not know a single note and cannot spell the simplest word. She was a house servant, and as such was occasionally permitted to play upon the plano. She can play any plece, however difficult it may be, after hearing it played, and her accuracy and delicacy of touch is something remarkable. After a few private performances it is understood that the musical wonder will make a tour through the United States and Europe.

A young lady of considerable pretensions recently made an application to play at a concert which took place not a hundred iniles away. Her postscript to the manager was as follows:—"You must exkeen the manager was as follows:—"You must exkeen the reigning operatic favorite at Moscow last month was Mile. MEETING OF THE NEW YORK LIEDERKRANZ SOCIETY.

ng of this great vocal society was held last evening at the hall, Fourth street, General Louis Bürger, president of the society, occupied the chair. The object of the meeting was to hear the report of the Board of Trustees upon the proposal of Mr. William Steinway, who offered the society a plot of ground, consisting of eight lois, at the corner of Lexington avenue and Tairty-seventh street, tor the sum of $70,000, for the purpose of building a new club house and music hall on it. The present quarters of the Liederkram have become entirely inadequate to accommodate the large number of members at present on the rolls—over 1,100—and k is a matter of necessity that other quarters, more roomy and central, should be chosen or the present place enlarged. The Board of Trustees having reported unhavorably against the purchase of the Lexington avenue property, the offer was withdrawn by Mr. Steinway. The purchase of the house and property adjoining the present home of the society, consisting of No. 38 Fourth street, was recommended by the Board of Trustees. The price asked was $42,000, $12,000 cash down and the 'remainder on mortgage. Mr. Steinway, as reporting member of the Board, made an able and effective speech, advising the purchase of this property. After some debate the motion was carried unanimously. The annual fees of members were also raised to twenty-four dollars. The necessary changes and improvements in the club house will take place this summer. The present music hall will be considerably enlarged, necessary healing apparatus procured, a proper room set aside for rehearsais and the dining hall will be commodations for 400 additional members. When all these important changes are brought about the New York Liederkram may challenge compectation with any musical society in having the handsomest, comise and mest attractive city house agd unuste hall in America. president of the society, occupied the chair. sheriff of Princess Anne county, addressed to the commanding officer of this post, stating that in at tempting to serve a writ of ejectment he had been forcibly resisted by an armed band of about fifty forcibly resisted by an armed band of about fifty negroes. In compliance with a request for assistance to execute the law and preserve the peace, the military commander sent a force of twenty men to the aid of the civil authorities. Later information has been received from the scene of the disturbance to the effect that in an encounter to-day between the military and the negroes, a sergeant tad been mortally wounded and three negroes killed. The officer commanding the detachment has made application for reinforcements. He says the negroes in the surrounding country are arming and threatening an open attack. An additional minitary force will probably be sent out to-night.
